This is the second in the series of "Polymer People". I love the human form. There is so much about it that intrigues me. But when I went looking for a book on how to sculpt it in polymer clay, I had very few options. Those that I found were showing how to do character-type creations. I wanted something grounded in traditional fine art techniques. Things they would teach you in a life sculpting class if you were to use only polymer clay and not earthen clay. You learn about making your own sculpting tools, proportions, the differences between male, female, children, and adult hands & feet. She's tiny but mighty!
